FOUNDER & CEO

It is a great honor and privilege for me to welcome you at Georgia and Asia-Africa Chamber of Commerce (GAACC) where businesses and new opportunities bind.

For over two decades I have been actively involved in the business in several domains, visited more than 30 countries, but this journey has only deepened my obsession to offer new ways of growing businesses to everyone. Thanks to these global visits, a lot of contacts have been collected worldwide, mostly in the regions of Asia and Africa; therefore, the action plan, purpose and direction of our Chamber have been determined. GAACC has valuable and extensive network of business partners in different countries of the above-mentioned regions. We are also representing and assisting businesses in Europe and Gulf countries and introducing global opportunities to local and international businesses, while promoting them worldwide.

Our core belief is, that benefits we accumulated due to extensive and rich business experience around the globe, are worth to spread. And with an obsession to make them accessible to every business, we introduce GAACC Connect platform.

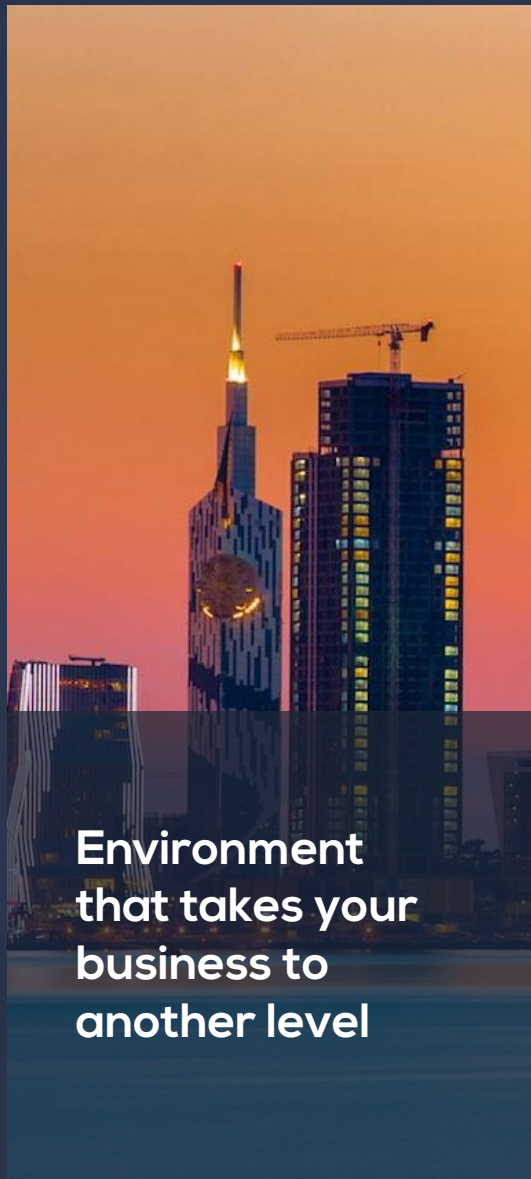

At GAACC we are committed to help businesses, where I believe chamber is an ideal platform connecting organizations and entrepreneurs around the globe while providing infinite opportunities in the Asian and African markets.

I am proud, that I, together with my team and loyal partners maintain a certain contribution to the business development in Georgia, Asia and Africa. We work in a fashion to erase borders and limits of geolocation for businesses.

Extend your network to new horizons, through Georgia reach to an entire Europe and have the best of both worlds in Asia and Africa!

WE WILL GUIDE YOUR BUSINESS IN GEORGIA IN THE LAND OF FRESH NEW OPPORTUNITIES

Georgia and Asia-Africa Chamber of Commerce (GAACC) was established by the International Relations Centre in 2017 in order to provide a full support in terms of new contacts and useful acquaintances not only in Georgia but in other regions throughout Asia and Africa. GAACC has been designed to unify and connect successful entrepreneurs and businesses from Asia and Africa.

The core mission of the organization is to develop Economic, Cultural and Social Relations between Georgia and Asia-Africa. Our organization is comprised of successful business leaders and highly talented young professionals having the main purpose of building a prospective partnership with international business operators. Georgia always welcomes new investment opportunities and we are here to ensure these opportunities will serve with its best ways to expand your business to new horizons.

GAACC is a cohesive, hard-working group, which provides an excellent platform for different business operators to share their experiences and develop strong relationships. We have high standards of job commitment and development. The prior intention of the GAACC is to bring relations between business people of different nationalities closer and enhance mutual understanding. Our Chamber follows the principles of bilateral benefit.
